Sanitary Board Resigns to Secretary of State Jordan

The board of trustees of the Carmel Sanitary District has resigned in a body. Their letter of resignation went forward to the Secretary of State, Frank P. Jordan, at Sacramento last Monday. Governor James J. Rolph will have the naming of their successors.

The announcement, which comes as a surprise, because of the fact that most everybody believed that the county supervisors had the power to accept resignations and name successors for the sanitary district board, is as follows:

March 19th, 1934.

To The Carmel Pine Cone.

The enclosed is a copy of a communication addresesd to Frank P. Jordan, Secretary of State, being a resignation of the Board of Directors of the Carmel Sanitary District. On advice of counsel we have adopted this method of resignation.

As a reason for this action we hand you the following:-

The trustees, as a result of the recent election are faced with the fact that a large majority of the electors disaprove our recommendation for a method of sewage disposal, the result of many months study of the situation. It also would seem that said majority believes it possible to discharge raw sewage into the bay at Reimer's Point, and at much less cost than the plan we proposed for disposal of sewage. Were they right in their conclusion, we freely admit that this would be the easiest solution of the problem.

We have considered this plan, and our rejection of it in favor of the proposed disposal plan we submitted, was based upon the following two outstanding conditions viz;-

1st. The cost of an outfall sewer would be excessive, much in excess of the plant recommended by us, its maintenance uncertain, due to depth of water and the direct ac tion of the ocean at this point, and other physical conditions such as direction of tides.

2nd A formal notice from the State Sanitary engineer's office, to the effect that such a method of sewage disposal would not be approved by them.

After an exhaustive consultation with our Engineer, since the election of March 12th, we have no solution to offer either than the recommendation we made and which the voters vetoed. We believe that the above action of the Sanitary Board will clarify the situation in the shortest possible time.

You will be faced with the facts much sooner, and with more certainty through the State Authority.

Our remaining in office under the present circumstances means temporizing and delay.

Thus we believe you are best served by us, and brought much closer to the solution of your sewer disposal problem, by our action.

To Honorable Frank P. Jordan,
Secretary of State,
Capitol Building,
Sacramento, Calif.

Dear Sir:

The undersigned, and each of us, constituting all the duly, elected, qualified and acting members of the Sanitary Board of Carmel Sanitary District, Monterey County, California, hereby jointly and severally resign as members of said sanitary board; said resignations, and each of them, to take effect and be in force at and after midnight of the 30th day of April, 1934.

We inclose a copy of the opinion of the special attorney of the Carmel Santary District to the effect, among other matters, that it is incumbent upon the governor to appoint our successors, and we request that you advise him accordingly.

Respectfully submitted,
C. W. Whitney

Five Candidates in Race For Three Council Seats

Five candidates will run for election to t he city council on April 9th, Frederick Paxton Howard, Joseph A. Burge, Bernard Rowntree, John H. Neikirk and James H. Thoburn having filed affidavits with City Clerk Saidee Van Brower before Tuesday noon for that purpose. There will be three vacancies upon the Board.

As yet there appears to be no series of issues to give any one candidate a battle cry. The trees of town have not been slaughtered, nor the beach threatened with hot dog stands, nor is Pacific Grove trying to adopt us again, nor has any public utility tried to choke out the breath of art with mercenary hands. It is an issue of men, not measures.

Early to submit their affidavits were Messrs. Burge and Howard, each with a substantial list of sponsors' names appearing on the documents. While only five legitimate Carmel voters need to sign, all candidates got more than enough to be on the safe side when the time limit had passed.

Signing for J. A. Burge were Charles Clark, attorney; John R. Gray, physician; Ike Hitchcock, carpenter; J. P. Narvaez, stone mason; Byron G. Newell, grocer; Teresa Duranti, restauranteer; Ross E. Bonham, merchant; W. E. Mack, laundryman; R. F. Haller, merchant; and H. P. Larouette, retired.

Those on the F. P. Howard list were Grant Wills, real estate operator; F. L. Cole, engineer; J. Leslie Doulton, retired; Geo. P. Ross, attorney; Mads J. Rohr, retired; William Silva, artist; A. E. Wheldon, none; H. L. Clement, none; Miles Bain, builder; and B. W. Adams, mechanic.

Bringing in their documents on the final day were the other three.

Bernard Rowntree had as sponsors, May Sutton, apartment manager; Paul W. Funches, merchant; Clara N. Kellogg, housewife; Ella M. Kellogg, housewife; D. L. Staniford, druggist; Vera Peck Millis, homemaker; B. W. Adams, mechanic; Hazel Watrous, designer; James T. Williams, building manager; and F. R. Bechdolt, writer.

John H. Neikirk had Everett Smith, forester; Emma B. Rendtorff, housewife; Robt. L. Anderson, lumber yeard manager; L. H. Levinson, garage owner; Hazel Watrous, designer; Paul C. Prince, secretary; and James L. Cockburn retired.

James H. Thoburn had Adolph C. Lafrenz, merchant; Hallie Samson, merchant; Mary E. France, home owner; Florence Leidig, merchant; Jean Ritchie, merchant; Maude Arndt, home owner; M. Grace Glenn, merchant.

Names of these candidates all of whom are for the full term of four years, will be printed on the ballot and to avoid the confusion attending the late sanitary bond issue election.

Jointly with the trustee election will be that af the proposed $50,000 bond issue for the city hall and fire house, design and location to be decided upon later, tentative idea of which has been presented the government with a reqeust for federal grant of 15% on labor and materials under PWA arrangements.

"Tack" Knight Returns With His Little Folks

by Winsor Josselyn

The old saying that nobody is more solemn than a humorist is well exemplified in the person of cartoonist "Tack" Knight, creator of those never still youngsters "Little Folks," who have appeared in as many as sixty-five different papers throughout the country at the same time and who are led by Baxter Bright of the round sailor hat and permanent grin.

Young looking, this Knight, with strong features, steady dark eyes that peer through heavy-rimmed glasses, thinning hair, a slim body of average height, and speech as deliberate as a theologian's, coming with a hesitance that makes you want to finish sentences for him.

How did he get the name "Tack?" It came from boyhood when his playmates couldn't manage the mouth-filling title of Thackston.

"I've drawn ever since I can remember," he said the other day when down here to renew acquaintance with the town that he called home for two years a decade ago while working with cartoonist Gene Byrnes. "Although I'm a native of North Carolina, I grew up in San Francisco and got an art training at the old Hopkins Art Institute on Nob Hill. Landed my first job with the Oakland Tribune in 1914, and after the World's Fair next year I went into animated cartooning."

And the man he worked for was Byington Ford, of Carmel and Pebble Beach, who can still dash off a drawing even if a burnt stick and a chalkrock fireplace are all that he has to work with. Byington was starting an advertising movie business, and had secured "Pinto" Colvig to help him The trade name became "Pin-tack-o."

Colvig, by the way is now in Hollywood working for Walt Disney as an artist and gag man, and in the famous "Three Little Pigs" picture did sound effects for the third little pig—the builder of the brick house—and coined the phrase "Who's afraid of the big, bad wolf?" He is also the source of noise for Pluto, the droopy hound of the "Mickey Mouse" reels.

Along came the war and "Tack" enlisted in the navy. At the San Pedro camp he helped John P. Medbury with the station newspaper named "The Reservist", and gained such favor that he was stuck there for the rest of the conflict, doing combat duty with pen and paper. After being discharged he took up more animated work, this time in Hollywood.

Fololwed various art jobs, then an instruction booklet titled "Tack's Cartoon Tips," and next the arrival in Carmel to join Byrnes with his "Reg'lar Fellers" feature when

COUNCIL STILL IN DARK ON LICENSE PROPOSITION

Discussion of major issues and action upon minor needs marked a dull adjourned regular session of the Council last Wednesday evening. The long-expected business license ordinance to be offered by the Business Association was not yet ready for presentation, and although Judge George Wood had another version subject to discussion, no detailed inquiry was made into it. It is apparent that the section covering contractors and their several licenses will require careful adjustment in any case.

Second reading of the ordinance calling for special bond election on April 9th to vote on the $50,000 city hall bond issue brought emphasis on two points, namely that unless the government grant of 30% could be had to assist the project it would not be sanctioned, and that if it were passed a local contractor using local labor should be insisted upon.

The mayor was authorized to proclaim that on Good Friday the business houses would be asked to close from noon until three o'clock, and that Army Day would be observed on April 6th. Councilman Heron reported that the P. G. & E. would install the police call light at Ocean and Dolores for $50 and thus enable Marshal Gus Englund to summon his force during the night hours, and the outlay was aproved for public safety.

Approval was also given to retention of Deputy Tax Collector Hefling for another month to complete delinquent tax lists, and with this the meeting adjourned until Wednesday the 28th, then to hear further on the Business License proposition.

PEBBLE BEACH ROAD IS NOT A CARMEL STREET

Similarity in names between a street in Carmel and a road in Pebble Beach resulted in the fire department being called out by phone on last Monday evening and finding no fire.

It seems that the home of Dr. Helen Carn Cross, in the Beach, was threatened by a blaze and someone phoned for our engine to come to Viscaino Street and extinguish it. Carmel's Viscaino Street was given a treat by the laddies and by the time they got back to the firehouse after fruitless search it was learned the real street was over the fence and too far away.

FRANK DALTON FIGHTS TONIGHT IN KING CITY

Fighting in two events on the same evening of boxing, Frank Dalton won his first 147 pound bout against Johnny Gomez of Sacramento Athletic Club, by a knock out in the third round, and lost a close decision later in the evening to the more crafty John Christopher, of Twin Peaks Native Sons Assn. Events took place in the Civic Auditorium in San Francisco, and attracted a capacity audience under sponsorship of the Amateur Athletic Assn., directed by Al Santell.

Dalton will fight again tonight, this time in King City, and meets Tommy Jaundaine. His smaller brother Bob is taking a rest from the ring and knocking out problems in high school books rather than opponents in the 117 pound class.

Both boys have been invited to Kansas City for the amateur bouts there scheduled for the latter part of June. They are two of the eleven fighters invited from California, and they and their father, who manages them, will have all expenses paid for the trip.

The Sunset Schol Carnival of last Friday afternoon showed Carmel that entertainment on a wholesale scale is not limited to Street Fairs staged by grown-ups. Sarting at two o'clock with a promptness that senior theatrical producers would do well to copy, the youngsters put on a monster parade with over a hundred and seventy-five marchers, followed it with ballyhooed activities in outdoor booths and then with indoor shows that Mr. Barnum would have done well to return and personally acquire.

With hundreds lining the rope barrier, the parade came up the San Carlos sidewalk and descended to the school yard, headed by 18 doll buggies pushed by none other than walking dolls themselves and complicated by go-as-you-please traffic rules and round-eyed inattentions to driving; then 38 in national costumes clearly showing League of Nations mingling and by 17 period garbs that would give pause to any fashion expert.

By contrast 36 cowboys and cowgirls pranced along next, with 9 Indians huddled on their heels, probably to seek protection from the 12 burlesque characters that followed. The 14 tumblers were trailed by 32 clowns, and whenever you get that many clowns together the rest of the populace can look for interesting complications, especially when 18 bicycle riders persist in crowding into them elbow and knee, wheel and sprocket.

Parents claimed their own, or took care of somebody's else, until the fishpond, the peanut and candy booth, the food stall, the Pirate Den and the other outdoor attractions could get under way, and then the loudspeaker bellowed about indoor events and the crowd surged under cover.

A magician, a room of tumblers and acrobats, a room of dancers. A mob of Hill Billies right from the mountains, a freak show, a peep show, a concert by a musical saw. All were there for the finding with capable ushers to explain the mysteries of the buildings to grownups.

Not to forget the ponies to ride outside, nor the fortune tellers, the card caricatures and the many other features that had taken careful preparation, the whole afternoon ending with a bonfire at dusk and the trooping homeward of dozens of weary figures in costume and their elders in fatigue.

Sponsored by the Parent-Teachers Association, the day was staged to raise funds for their social welfare work and a substantial sum was realized. Much credit must go to the organizers, headed by Grace Plank, president of the group, and the many workers from the town and the school who made the day possible.

Among the children who took part in the events were the Hill Billies made up of Bob Farley, Hugh Smith, Patrick Crichton, Homer Levinson, Albert Cavallero, Joseph McEldowney, Lee Van Atta, Jack Pelton, Donna Hodges and Jacqueline Hodges. Freak Show examples of the unusual were Katharine Beaton, Gerald Ray, Martin Artellan, Ronald Dorsett, Jacqueline Klein, Alice Vidoroni, Pat Thompson, Doris Crossman and Tom Phillips-Barker.

Working in the Magic Show were Chief Magician Howard Van Doren, of the high school, assisted by William Sharp, James Thoburn, DeVoe Briggs, Jane Millis. In the Tumbling and Acrobatic division were Norris Thompson, Betty Wilson, Ethel Warrington, Cynthia Klein, Mary Jane Dawson, Kathryn Hamm, Babbette De Moe, Elaine McIntire, Martha Rico, Rosemary Turnage, Henrietta Erickson, Irene Erickson, Helen Wetzel, Dorothy McIntyre, Madelaine McDonald, Camille Burnham, Charlotte May and Jean May.

In the Dance Specialities were Doll Dancers, Eileen McEldowney, Patty Ann Ryland, Leona Ramsey and Carol Canoles. Spanish Dancing was done by Carol Canoles, and Dutch Dancing by Eileen McEldowney. Egyptian Dancers were Albert Holland, Dorothy Smith and Irene Stevenson. Three Little Pigs were Alberta Holland, Dorothy Smith and Irene Stevenson, thus combining nationalities upon a most active footing.

RED CROSS UNABLE TO AID TRANSIENTS

The Red Cross is at present unable to care for transients with food or clothing, and can only recommend them to Capt. Perry at the Salvation Army headquarters. This is in line with the policy of taking care of local people first, and as a part of this idea the local chaptér urges that anyone needing work done get in touch with Miss Walton by phoning Carmel 382 at the offices on Dolores and 7th, and thus employ you own townsfolk.

NO LICENSES ISSUED TO CAR TAX DODGERS

Motorists are reminded by City Clerk Saidee Van Brower that unless they can show a certificate that they have paid a personal property tax on their automobiles they cannot get new license plates next year.

The idea of the recent law is to collect taxes from itinerants who drive from place to place and dodge the fees that residents have to pay, being designed to equalize some of the burden placed on motorists as a whole.

Mr. H. W. Sheldon and his mother are to be here over the week end.

"Stabat Mater" Performance Here Next Thursday Night

"Oh Mum! The Stabat Mater is the 29th. And I refuse to miss that. If we left Ojai at four A. M. we could make it . . . " (From a letter of Valentine Porter to her mother, written from School about coming for Easter vacation)

So are our children coming home to hear the "Stabat Mater," and in a year or so it may be Bach's B minor Mass, or the Brahm's Requiem, for with the Carmel Music Society and the Monterey Peninsula Orchestra, Michel Penha, conductor, and the Chorus of Fenton Foster, "all things are possible."

There are ten great Stabat Maters known to the musical world, and of them all, Rossini's is by far the most popular. Its arias for soprano, tenor and bass, its operatic cadenzas, its tuneful melodies are all of captivating beauty, and have been sung eagerly by artists ever since its writing in 1832. Many have heard the Stabat Mater in Church on Easter morning with large chorus and soloists, but few have had the opportunity to hear it with full orchestra, chorus and soloists as the Carmel Music Society is presenting it on next Thursday evening, in the Sunset School Auditorium, Michel Penha, conducting.

The program will be entirely of music in keeping with the sacred mood of Holy Thursday and the approaching dawn of Easter morning. As a prelude, the Orchestra will play the "Good Friday Spell" from Wagner's Parsifal. Those who have not been attending rehearsals will be surprised at the strong brass section, which comes into its own in the Wagner music. Following, without intermission, will be the Stabat Mater, whose program is as follows:

I. Orchestral prelude, short and very brililant. In opera style. Followed by opening chorus "Stabat Mater dolorosa," for solos and chorus. Very dramatic.

II. Tenor solo, sung by G. Marston Haddock, "Cujus animan" of swinging melody, almost joyful in character, without ornament.

III. Duet of two sopranos, sung by Marie Wallman and Calista Rogers, "Quis est Homo." Beautiful melody sung first by one then the other, then both, with operatic cadenzas.

IV. Bass aria, sung by Henri Schefoff, "Pro perccatis," in church style.

V. Bass recitative with chorus, "Eia Mater."

VI. Quartet by soloists, "Sancta Mater."

VII. Cavatina, second sporano.

VIII. Soprano solo, "Inflammatus," brilliant, dramatic aria with orchestra and choral accompaniment. Requires voice of great power and range. Sung by Marie Wallman.

IX. Quartet, unaccompanied, for soloists, "Quando Corpus," which leads to

X. Grand Fugue and Finals, for Orchestra, Chorus and Soloists, "To Him be Glory Everymore."

MOLNAR COMEDY OFFERED BY CARMEL DRAMA GROUP

Coming to the Carmel Community Playhouse on April 5, 6, and 7th, will be Ferenc Molnar's new comedy of continental life "The Good Fairy," produced by the Carmel Community Players under direction of Helen Ware.

In the role of Lu, who is convinced that she can scatter good luck upon all around her, will be Peggy Converse, remembered for "The Doll's House" and "Paris Bound," and when this sweetly dreamy young woman starts a complication in somebody's life she doesn't stop until still another is begun.

Chester Shephard and James Roache-Kelley are the principal targets of her attentions, and Kelly is involved only because Lu finds his name in the phone book and decides to make him rich overnight. Shephard did outstanding work in "Pinafore" and "Nine Pine Street," while Kelly will be recalled in "Tornado."

Marjorie Collis, the secretary, has done extensive playing with the San Jose Guild, and Eugene Watson, taking the part of the fussy cabinet minister, has been outstanding in "The Ivory Door," "The Devil In The Cheese" and many other productions. It is hoped that Frederick Burt, with a national name in the drama, will take the part of the theatre manager who makes a curtain speech before the epilogue, thus leading up to the part of the play that created so much discussion in the New York production starring Helen Hayes.

Helen Ware scarcely needs introduction to Carmel, and will bring a wide stage experience to bear on the play, assuring all of Molnar's subtility an outlet in this play of rapid lines and frequent laughs. As has been remarked before, despite the title "Good Fairy" the show is not for children, although the child-like trust in people evinced by little Lu will make you wonder if it isn't worth trying after all.

Tickets will be on sale shortly at the Staniford Drug Store, and the usual popular prices will prevail.

MRS. JACKSON OPENS NEW CARMEL SHOP

A most interesting and practical shop, is that just opened by Mrs. H. M. Jackson, who has been known for some time in Carmel as an expert with women's and children's apparel.

Mrs. Jackson will feature complete outfits of clothing for children of all ages; clothing that is not expensive though very tastefully selected. In addition she wil' wear which will be made to order specialize in women's hand kni' from yarns selected ahead of time She will also conduct classes and give individual instruction in the art of knitting.

NOTICE TO THE MUSIC SOCIETY SUBSCRIBERS

The Carmel Music Society has tried to reach all of its regular subscribers, in order to hold for them their regular seats for the Stabat Mater performance on March 29, if they so desire. Will those who have not been reached please let the Society know, whether or not they wish these seats held for them, or whether they should be released for public thru the Denny-Watrous Gallery, sale.

FOSTER GLEE CLUB SINGS TO A CAPACITY HOUSE

by Hal Garrott

Fenton Foster's Glee Club sang to a capacity audience last Sunday at Carmel Community Church. Many chairs had to be brought in, and still some were left standing. The reason for this record attendance lies in the growing popularity of the glee club due to improvement made in the past year.

The program went off without a hitch. The ensemble was fuller and possessed more "punch" than when I heard the club last spring. The tone was colored by four well balanced choirs. The tenor section has been built up surprisingly. The attack is vigorous, shading has been improved, and the singers now keep so close to the pitch they are ready for a capella singing. In spite of the excellent accompanying of Miss Alice Lee Keith, a male chorus is at its best in a capella work.

W. Paul Hampton, one of the first tenors, sang three solos. Mr. Hampton is an accomplished singer possessing a full voiced appealing tenor, which he manages with the ease and skill of a veteran platform artist. The best local vocalist I've heard in many moons. Solo parts in Robinson's "Be Strong" were well sung by Gordon Knoles and Leonard Abinante.

After hearing Sunday's concert I am not surprised to learn the Foster Glee Club is in demand in Salinas, Watsonville and elsewhere. For their next Carmel recital a larger auditorium will be required.

PICTURES GAINED BY ART PATRONS AT NEW GALLERY

Selection by lot of the donated pictures at the Carmel Art Association gallery on north Dolores street Wednesday P. M. brought an event of great interest to peninsula art devotees. This means of furthering the Association funds has brought favorable comment from other groups in the state, and Carmel's precedent of having artist-members give pictures, and then the patron-members subscribing $100 or over having a chance to gain these pictures, will undoubtedly be widely copied.

Through a double drawing system that assured fairness from the start, Armin Hansen, the well known marine artist, conducted the event that gave to Henry C. Wehrhane opportunity to select first from the pictures upon the walls. He chose a Ritschel seascape, and second choice fell to Charles Berkey, who took the Dougherty marine.

Third choice went to Mrs. Comstock, and she selected the Percy Gray watercolor, while Whitney Palache, next in order, took the Hensen seascape. Following them were Ada Howe Kent, who took the Hudson marine, Barney Segal seclured the Gilbert landscape, Anita Doud getting the Fortune bay scene, Charles Parnelle Eells getting Oliver's bay scene, Harry W. Turner taking the Strong, Samuel B. Bowen taking the Culbertson and Miss Pickitt the John O'Shea.

Artists present included Armin Hansen, Paul Whitman, Chapel Judson, Charlton Fortune, Abbe Lou Bosworth, Homer Levinson, Myron Oliver, Eva Belle Adams, De Neale Morgan, Edda Maxwell Heath, Nora Grabill and Josephine Culbertson, the latter one of the Association founders and a pioneer Carmel artist.

A number of paintings yet remain upon exhibition, and at the next meeting of the governing board a decision will be reached as to their disposition.

TO SUNSET VOTERS

Since announcing my candidacy for trustee of the Sunset School, several points have come up for discusion which I wish to clarify.

First, I made my announcement with the firm conviction that a public school should be administered by the community as a whole, and should not be the football of political factions or parties. For this reason I refuse to recognize any faction or party.

The purpose of this election is to select a person qualified to serve the community in a wise administration of its school affairs, who bespeaks for the children an education, academic, cultural, and character-bulding, and who recognizes that the school exists primarily for the children.

I ask the privilege of giving this service to the community with the promise to solve each problem as it arises to the best of my ability.

—Esther R. Smith.

Hectic Days Sleepless Nights

Miss Currier relieved of nervous days and sleepless nights.

IF YOU are nervous today, you probably will not sleep well tonight. If you don't sleep well tonight, you will probably be nervous tomorrow.

Don't allow yourself to become nervous. Take Dr. Miles Nervine. It will relax your tense nerves and let you get a good night's sleep.

Irritability, Restlessness, Sleeplessness, often lead to Nervous Headache, Nervous Indigestion, Hysteria—sometimes to a nervous breakdown and organic trouble.

Some of the people, whose letters are printed below, were as nervous as you are—possibly more so—yet they have found relief.

Christene Lanier finds Nervine best nerve medicine she ever used.

Three years ago I was so nervous I could not bear to go out in company and could not sleep nights. A friend recommended Dr. Miles Nervine. I now enjoy myself thoroughly and sleep every night. Miss Juliette Currier, New Market, N. H.

I have used Dr. Miles Nervine in liquid form and find it the best medicine for the nerves I have ever used. Christene Lanier, Middleton, Tennessee

Miss Redman takes Dr. Miles Nervine whenever she feels restless.

Whenever I have over-indulged and feel restless I take one or two Nervine Tablets just before I retire. In the morning when I awake I feel like a new person and can go about my work as usual. Dr. Miles Nervine Tablets quiet your nerves, brace you up and are the simplest, most convenient tablets to take I have ever found. Miss Grace Redmann, St. James, Minn.

Before using your Nervine I was very nervous and irritable. Since I have started to take it I feel so much better that my family notice the difference. I still take it from time to time and the good result is wonderful. J. H. Redding, 1027 18th Ave., Rock Island, Ill.

"TACK" KNIGHT RETURNS WITH HIS LITTLE ONES

Byrnes was living down at the Foster house near the Community Theatre, and afterward went to New York with Byrnes to continue the work there. In 1929 he started on his own with "Little Folks," distributed by the Chicago Tribune Syndicate, and since that time he has kept it up while he and his wife and daughter have lived in various parts of the country with a partiality for the Pacific Coast.

"It doesn't matter much where a cartoonist lives, as he can get well ahead of his schedule and send his work in from anywhere. I intend to be about nine weeks up on the Sunday page and perhaps four weeks up on the daily strips," he explained. "Both are done about twice the size of the reproductions, and for the Sunday supplements I make a red, a yellow and blue plate, as well as one key plate. Night is a fine time to work, and I can turn out possibly six strips—a week's run—at one sitting, then can date them in sequence and send them away in a batch."

Asked how he developed Baxter Bright, he said the child had been in his mind quite a while and had grown into a real character, and that the name had formed itself the beings of Horace, the stout lad, in much the same way, as had the Mary Bright, of the pigtails, and Kitty Carr, of the hair ribbon, inspired by "Tack's" own daughter.

One of the most frequent question," he said with a slow smile, "is how I keep my characters recognizable—keep them individual from picture to picture across the page. Why, those kids really live to me, and they couldn't appear any other way than they actually are, any more than they could do things that they wouldn't do in real life."

His impressions upon returning to Carmel after a number of years of absence will please the keep-Carmel-to-itself advocates. Save for a dressing up of Ocean Avenue, and a generally peppier feeling about town, the change was slight because the natural beauty of the region gave permanence that no amount of buildings could affect. The trees, the beach, the surrounding hills made for distinctiveness.

He was asked if he could bring Baxter Bright and pals down here to find out if they liked it, too.

"Sure I can, and I'll bet they agree with me. See if they don't."

Down they came, all of them, even to the pups, and we leave it to the reader whether or not they chime in with their creator's opinion of this Carmel village of ours.

SCHOENINGER TO HEAD HOSPITAL FUND DRIVE

Jospeh Schoeninger, prominent in civic activities in Carmel, has accepted chairmanship of the Peninsula Community Hospital Assn.'s financial campaign to increase the facilities of the Grace Deere Velie Metabolic Clinic until it will be a general hospital serving the region in the most reasonable, yet efficient, manner possible.

In a letter to Mr. Schoeninger, from W. W. Powell, president of the Clinic board, the opportunity for developing, building and equipment that already represent an investment of $350,000 and are free of any encumbrances into such a hospital was pointed out in the following passage.

"After the Board decided to close the Clinic, the doctors and many laymen expressed belief that it might be converted into a general hospital and operated successfully. The clinic did not possess sufficient funds to make the necessary alterations and purchase additional equipment."

Funds to bring about the indicated changes will prevent closing of the Clinic and will start a community enterprise managed by a representative operating group on a strictly business basis.

"A majority of the present Board of Directors," continued the letter, "expressed willingness to resign from the Board and permit their places to be filled by local citizens, provided there was a sufficient fund raised in the community to make the required alterations . . . .

"Before any alterations are made it will be necessary to place a sufficient fund in escrow with a local bank to cover all needed outlay. When this is done, the Board can then enter into a contract with a reputable contractor to make the alterations . . . . It may be deemed advisable to change the articles of incorporation to cover the broader field of a general hospital and you and your associates may desire some change in the name. I believe this can be done by an amendment to the articles of incorporation."

The peninsula has within its grasp an opportunity to add a relatively small sum to the present investment and possess a general hospital second to none on the coast, being of direct benefit to the entire community.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Alaska in its varied aspects will be considered at the meeting and there will be an exhibition of garments made by Saint Anne's Guild to be sent to Alaska. The meeting will be held at All Saint's Parish House on Tuesday afternoon, March 27 at 2:30. The public is cordially invited to attend.

MRS. FRANK HORTON PASSES

by Una Jeffers

Her friends here were saddened by the news of the death last week of Mrs. Frank Horton, in St. Luke's Hospital, San Francisco. She has spent many winters here with her son Bobby, who graduated from Sunset School and is now a senior at Monterey High. She was the wife of Frank Horton, owner of the H. F. Bar Ranch near Sheridan, Wyoming. She came to the ranch as a bride, and was peculiarly fitted for life there, not only by her appreciation of the wide space and grand natural scenery of that country, but also because she had the imagination of a true pioneer, and could visualize from the start the developments which Frank Horton has carried on with so much vigor through the years. This ranch became one the first great "dude" ranches, and Gertrude Horton's tact and charm, and generous enthusiasm in their enjoyment, endeared her to the hundreds of guests who have stayed at H. F. Bar.

Besides her husband and Bobby, she leaves two other sons, one a senior at Princeton, the other helping with the management of the ranch. Her father also survives her.

SEA SCOUT SAILORS ARE MEETING TONIGHT

Formation of a Sea Scout group in Carmel will take another step forward this evening at 8:00 o'clock in the Junipero Club at Eighth and Dolores when Commander H. Petereon, who has accepted the post of Skipper of the ship, will assemble speakers to tell boys of fifteen or over the details of the plan.

He will have Skipper Stan Greeb, of Monterey, Al Young, of Salinas, who is head of the Monterey County Scout Commission, Rev. Geo. E. Petrie, of Monterey, and Ronald Cockburn, first mate of the local ship there to address the lads and answer questions on the many phrases of the proposition. Refreshments will be served.

There is a possibility that Monterey's boat may be borrowed for practice cruises, or that a boat of Carmel's own may be obtained when the group is ready for sea service. In the meanwhile a practice boat will be set up in the meeting loft and instruction in sea-going customs will be furnished.

The rumor that Junipero Club members will be ineligible to membership is untrue, as the club is an activity center and not given to programmed events. While candidates for entry need not to have been Boy Scouts, they must be able to qualify in many of the Scout requirements.

Fathers of boys who intend joining are also invited, and from advance indications the evening will find Junipero Club's quarters without an empty chair.

DONAHUE RECITAL PROVES SUCCESSFUL

by Hal Gaorrott

Again we are indebted to Denny-Watrous, this time for the opportunity of hearing a first class pianist, Lester Donahue, in a thoroughly good musical program.

The gallery was well filled last Friday by an audience, many of whom would be recognized in New York social, literary and art circles. Their enthusiasm for the pianist's performance was rewarded by several encores.

Unlike most artists, Lester Donahue places his Liszt first on the program, a gratifying innovation. What a relief to have this composer's gaudy tinsel out of the way at the outset, instead of hanging over us like the sword of Damocles, to be dropped on our necks at the final number. And what a break for late comers.

Mr. Donahue gave an animated performance of the majestic Scriabin 5th Sonata Opus 53, and won repeated applause with his Debussy, Ravel and Chopin. This young pianist's playing is distinguished by rollicking vitality, a musical touch which adds emotional appeal to brilliant as well as lyric passages, and technical finish equal to the demands of an exacting program.

SERRA PAGEANT PLANS DISCUSSED AT MEETING

Meeting Tuesday evening in Whitney's banquet room to discuss formation of committees on the Serra Pageant at the Mission in August, leading Carmelites went over the problem of producing a play that would draw audiences from the entire state during this Serra Year.

Following a talk on publicity by Herbert Cerwin, of the Del Monte publicity bureau, came suggestions as to how the local angles could be tied in with Publicity Director Williams' program which will include papers throughout the nation. Housing and feeding of visitors, handling of concessions and elimination of undesirables who follow large gatherings of the sort came in consideration, as well as the important need of giving the whole week a distinctive name.

George Marion, veteran play producer, then read his Serra Play, a work of pageantry and drama woven around the Carmel Mission and to be produced with the Mission as a background.

Among those present were Don Staniford, presiding officer of the pageant group, Father Michael D. O'Connell, of the Mission, Herbert Cerwin, Frederick Burt, Jesse Bunch, Perry Newberry, who has produced many a pageant locally, T. L. Thienes, James and Ranald Cockburn, and Messrs Dorney, Overstreet and Josselyn.

Most ambitious plans are under way to make this August feature, to be held from the 25th to the 28th inclusive, one of the outstanding outdoor productions in the history of the state, and with the many elements such as location, nationally known names and capable actors to be used, the success of the plan seems assured.

HOLY WEEK SERVICES PLANNED AT MISSION

Holy week at the Mission will begin with Holy Thursday Mass at 7:30 A. M. and after Mass the Blessed Sacrament will be taken from the high altar to the altar of repose for adoration of the public during the day.

Thursday evening at 7:30 there will be Special Prayer and devotion to our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. On Good Friday Mass of the pre-sanctified will be had at 7:30 A. M., with the Three Hours Agony from noon til three conducted by Revs. M. D. O'Connell, McDowell and Santry. An augumented choir under direction of Mrs. Lee Watson will sing the "Seven Last Words."

On Friday evening at 7:30 will be the Stations of the Cross. Holy Saturday morning will bring the blessings of five Paschal candles at the baptismal font, and confessions will be heard Saturday morning, afternoon and evening.

Easter Sunday a solemn high mass will begin at 8 o'clock, with a special sermon appropriate to the season, preached by Rev. O'Connell. The choir under direction of Mrs. Watson will sing the Mass.

A special feature of the Holy Week services this year will bring back memories of the Padres. The body of Christ will be taken from the cross at the end of the Three Hours and carried to a side chapel symbolic of Christ being laid in to remain until Easter Sunday the tomb on the first Good Friday on Calvary's Heights, and will be the first time this has been done locally for 150 years.

MISS AGNES WILLISTON TALKS ON WOMEN'S WORK

After three weeks of being absorbed in research of Women's Activities, Miss Agnes Williston talked enthusiastically and learnedly on that subject at the last meeting of the Current Events section of the Woman's Club.

"The professions of teaching, nursing and librarian are oversaturated but there is room for women in cosmetology, credit management, legal professions, ownership and management, public offices, real estate and medicine. Women are especially suitable as judges in juvenile and night courts." As an example Miss Williston told about the work of Judge O. D. Faker in the Los Angeles Night Court with the appaling number of one hundred and fifty cases a night, many of them, what she calls, roamers who should be dealt with immediately and not have to wait for the day court.

Phil Walker, Betty Rae Sutton, May Payne, and Peggy Hoffman were among the extras who took part in several scenes of "Treasure Island," a new picture being filmed on Point Lobos.

SUNSET SCHOOL NEWS

by Lee Van Atta

The Sunset School Tumbling Class has been very successful so far. Miss Sara Rinehart, the director of the class, has taught the children many interesting, enjoyable and daring feats.

In the Eighth Grade English Class the pupils have been working out interesting projects. They are now writing poems. The Seventh Grade is also writing poetry.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain." These words from the Book of Exodus comprise the Golden Text to be used Sunday in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Matter." Included among the Scriptural selections will be: "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and learn not unto thine own understanding. Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the Lord, and depart from evil. (Prov. 3:. 5, 7)

The following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included: "Unnecessary knowledge as gained from the five senses is only temporal,—the conceptions of mortal mind, the offspring of sense, not of Soul, Spirit,—and symbolizes all that is evil and perishable .... The senses of Spirit abide in Love, and they demonstrate Truth and Life. Hence Christianity and the Science which expounds it are based on spiritual understanding, and they supersede the so-called laws of matter." (p. 274)

CARMEL A FESTIVAL CITY
by Hal Garrott

The high water mark in Carmel musical history will be reached Thursday night in Sunset Auditorium.

Directed by Michel Penha, our local orchestra augmented to symphonic proportions, seventy-five selected vocalists trained by Fenton Foster, and four professional artists with grand opera and oratorio background will present Rossini's Stabat Mater under the auspices of the Carmel Music Society.

Any town but Carmel would broadcast this information to the surrounding territory, and music lovers would flock from all directions to attend so brilliant an event. But Carmel is different.

I doubt whether San Francisco is capable of a finer presentation than the one to be given in this village. In my experience I have encountered few orchestral leaders who surpass Michel Penha. San Francisco in my opinion does not at present possess his equal. As a drill master he is unsurpassed. The S. F. Symphony was in better shape when Penha conducted its rehearsals than now. From various parts of the state artists are coming to add to our orchestra, which has been intensively drilling for months in anticipation of Thursday's performance. The excellent work of Fenton Foster's chorus in the Messiah last December has been further perfected.

The four soloists engaged equal a "double bill" at a Carmel Music Society concert. Those who know concert headliners will recognize their names. G. Marsden Haddock, the popular English tenor, Henri Shefoff, grand opera basso recently starred as "Falstaff," Calista Rogers, musically gifted soprano possessing a powerful voice, and Marie Wallman, a delightful coloratura who hits "high C" without (apparently) raising her voice. All have appeared in Stabat Mater before, some many times.

The thing this writer has been urging for years is about to take place—community participation in a musical event meeting the higest standards, conducted by a great leader, performed by recognized vocal artists and scores of thoroughly drilled resident musicians.

It lies within our power to start Carmel on its career as a music festival city. Realization lies with the audience. Success must depend upon public support. If you believe in building Carmel, advancing its prestige, attracting visitors and residents of the highest type, as well as profiting yourself by an inspiring evening, attend Thursday night accompanied by your family and friends.

OUR AIRPORT—IN MONTEREY

There is inspiration in the thought that Carmel may at last cut-in on the C. W. A. funds that Uncle Sam has so generously distributed to every other city and hamlet in the county, and get for it share an airport —in Monterey! Merchants and workingmen, writers and artists can rejoice that this long-needed improvement to Carmel is in immediate promise of fulfillment, and we can add to our city tax expenses, the costs of upkeep for an airport—in Monterey.

Local artists, writers, professional men and business people have been seriously handicapped in the past, particularly during this extended period of depression, by not having an airport conveniently at hand for their flying. It has been a much felt want. The council has been urged repeatedly by The Carmel Music Society, The Carmel Art Association, the Actors and Writers League, the Business Association, and the Woman's Club to give the city an airport. Taxpayers, even delinquent taxpayers, have crowded the council chamber demanding that Carmel have a flying field—in Monterey. How otherwise could the real destiny of Carmel be fulfilled? How better could the taxes be used? Where was there a more perfect opportunity to reduce the surplus in the city treasury and help lift the depression?

Carmel has failed to avail itself of C. W. A. help in civic improvements so far. That its initial attempt to get into the money should take the lines of dotting its skies with roaring motors is indicative of the village's progress away from the old traditions; and its financial support of the upkeep of a neighboring city's improvement projects is indicative of its rare unselfishness.

NOW UP TO THE STATE

Whether or not there are any bits of truth in the Pine Cone's pre-sewer election prophecies, "ridiculous, absurd and addle-pated," as the Peninsula Herald named them, will be demonstrated shortly. The members of the board of trustees of the Carmel Sanitary District have resigned in a body, and Gov. James Rolph will appoint their successors. It is quite likely that the new governing body for the district will take office with a mandate from the state regarding sewage disposal for Carmel.

There are plenty of teeth in the state laws regarding sewage, and the state board of health is not merely a dummy institution. Carmel's situation is well understood by that body. For more than ten years their warnings have been met by our excuses and promises of action in the future. It is likely that their patience is exhausted. Nor will the fact that two-thirds of those who voted last week were against the bonds influence the state board of health.

A disposal plant by direct assessment upon the property, payable over a term of ten years, making a lien upon the property, will be a heavier burden to carry than the bonds would have been, nor will there be P. W. A. money to assist in the cost. It is likely that the future will develop the fact that our retiring board of trustees was wiser, and knew more of the value of the state board of health's warnings than did the vociferous opponents of the plan.

SELECTION BY MERIT

The coming city election, with three councilmen to be chosen, has no direct issues at stake that can be framed. There is the broad

WIND FEAR

Finned clouds like little fish swim by the moon,
The rising wind shrieks of the coming storm.
Here, walled within my house I'm safe and warm;
The crackling blue-gold logs, the kettle's croon
Give little credence to the fear a-tune
Within my hart,—but the old, propped-up elm
That scratches feebly on the leaded pane
Feels the same terror shake its crooked form.

The world's unsafe when wind is in the sky.
The tree and I, we know its crazy strength,
The subtle wind that melts into a sigh,—
Then stretches, shrieking, all its winding length!
This temporary shelter, strong and low
Can't dull its voice, can't make the wind-fear go!

—Virginia Brazier

AFTERMATH

There are phantoms abroad
On the woodland road.
Each shadowy spot
Is a haunted abode
Where a memory lingers
To bid me return
From my wandering, to dream
Where the leaping flames burn.
The tree branches sway
Etched in moon silvered frost.
For winter dwells here
And my lover is lost.
Icy tears on my cheek
Is love's cold aftermath;
And my footprints alone
On the snow-crusted path.

—Gertrude Grymes Smith

SEARCH

I searched to find Eternity—
Up in the sky
Out in the sea.

I searched through years,
Dimming my eyes
Following waves
Following skies.

Then once, I lay
Along the night
Eternity came—
One hour of delight!

—Edwin Bruell

one of holding Carmel to its ideals, but of the five candidates who have filed for the office, probably all would agree on that issue. The character and qualities of the men, the records of their past performances, where they have lived and how they have done their work, must determine for each voter whom to choose, three of the five, for his councilmen.

None of the candidates is an old-timer in Carmel. Most of them have come here in recent years. The Pine Cone invites them all to tell the electorate somthing of their history before their arrival in the village. Our columns are open to autobiographies.

PEOPLE TALKED ABOUT

"Fifteen men on a dead man's chest—
Yo-ho-ho, and a bottle of rum!"

What a thrill! Point Lobos made the setting for the sailor's tale of storm and adventure, pirates and buried gold; "Treasure Island."

Fitting is the filming of the Robert Louis Stevenson "Treasure Island" on Point Lobos because the author roamed the hills and spent days on the coast and the imaginary island was suggested to him by Point Lobos.

M. G. M. company has sent cameramen and technicians to film the opening sequence, which if you remember your Treasure Island, is in England. They are using Carmel people for the folk dances. In fact none of the Hollywood cast, which is headed by Wallace Beery and Louis Stone, will be here. The island scenes will be filmed in Tahiti. In the picture, Point Lobos is England.

On a recent morning the following people set their alarm clocks at seven and went through the excitement of finding costumes and three cornered hats to fit at San Carlos Hotel and then to Point Lobos: Sis Reamer, Vera Hunter, May Payne, Philip Walker, Edward Files, Bill Nye, Al Hoffman, Kelly Clark, Bobby Smith, Charlotte Lawrence, John Middesworth, Frances Brewer and Gretchen Schoeninger. On Thursday morning the same people set their clocks for six and went through the same routine. Kelly Clark is the veteran Point Lobos actor, having worked in "Evangeline" with many other Carmel people in the cold winter of 1928. The misfortune of that Longfellow classic was that it was made a silent picture just as talkies came in.

"Treasure Island" was filmed before as a silent and with a girl playing the part of the hearty English lad who is the lead. The part has not yet been cast but with the many child actors now in Hollywood M. G. M. will doubtless find some suitable boy for the part to do credit to Stevenson's tale of red-blooded adventure.

It takes world travelers to make you enjoy your own region. The farther they've been, the more they try to liken Carmel to some far part of the globe, as did Harvey Ladew, of Harford, Maryland, while here recently as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Fish.

"All my life," said Ladew, "I've heard about the California landscape, and I can spell backward most of the See America First slogans connected with it. When I finally landed out here, I dared the place to be as remarkable as its reputation, but I can only say that it's twice what's claimed for it. Why, it's the most beautiful country I have ever seen!"

Master of the Harford Fox Hounds, which is one of the most famous packs in the United States, and an internationally known sportsman, he lives near Baltimore most of the year, and is returning there shortly for a steeplechase to be run within the confines of his own estate.

SCHOOL ELECTION FACTS

by Bernard Rowntree

Friday March 30th.

Polls open 9 A. M. to 7 P. M.

Election of Sunset School Trustee.

Vote at the Fire House if you live in Carmel and west of San Carlos Street. Vote at the School House if you live in Carmel east of San Carlos Street of if you live outside Carmel but in Sunset School District.

Qualified voters are those residents of Sunset School District whose names appear on the Great Register as having been reigstered before February 18th, 1934. No electioneering shall be carried on within one hundred feet of the polls.

The folowing extracts from a letter written by District Attorney Attorney Harry L. Noland on March 12th, 1934, are of interest. They refer to those who would ordinarily be qualified registered voters.

1. It is my opinion that a voter who is too ill to come to the polling place cannot vote at a school district election.

2. If a registered voter moves to another precinct in the same school district, it is my opinion he would be entitled to vote.

3. If the voter moves to another precinct in the county but not in the school district, it is my opinion that the voter could not then vote, regardless of the time of removing from the district.

BISHOP BAKER TO BE AT COMMUNITY CHURCH

Announcement is made by the Rev. Melvin Dorsett that the distinguished Bishop James C. Baker, of San Francisco, will be in the Community Church pulpit next Sunday morning at the eleven o'clock worship service.

Bishop Baker, a Methodist, has been a motive factor in the Wesley Foundation work throughout the country, bringing about the close tie between student university and religious life at state universities. The Methodist group in Carmel is merely a sponsoring body in the Community Church, and while the congregation is composed of various faiths the individuals retain their beliefs quite definitely.

Rev. Dorsett tells of a plan to bring high school and older Carmelites of the younger set together Sunday evenings to read the better plays with high ethical and religious content such as Channing Pollock's "The Fool," or Fred Eastman's "Bread." Two or three times a year they may produce a play as the church's contribution to community thinking, and meanwhile the get-togethers will be of both a studious and social nature.

Direction will be in charge of Anna Marie Baer, while diversities will be handled by June Delight, the teacher of dancing. Meetings will begin on April 8th.

Another church activity will be the formation of The Hammer and Tongs Class. Here religious problems and confusions of thinking will be aired, and personal and community difficulties discussed freely and frankly. This will be open to all who are willing to think and let others think in the field of religious and social ethics, and will be held Thursday between 8 and 9 in the evening at the Community Church Social Hall on Lincoln Street. There will be no formal course laid out, but rather the proceedings will be built upon the desires of each group.

LAW BREAKERS TO ENJOY SCENERY OF OUR VILLAGE

So that depressed transgressors of the local traffic laws may enjoy the beauties of Carmel instead of languishing in stuffy jails because they cannot pay a fine, Judge George Wood has been empowered by the council to offer guilty defendants a chance to work on the streets or in the parks under supervision of public works employees, the term of work to be one day for every $2.00 of the fine.

To become more exact, D. P. Johnson, of Berkeley, who has been staying with relatives on The Point, failed to stop at a sign on Ocean and San Antonio the other day and was fined $5.00, which he was unable to pay. The only thing for the judge to do was sentence him to one day in jail for every $2.00 of the fine—or offer him the distinction of being Carmel's first offender to take advantage of the new ruling. Hence Mr. Johnson will put in his time for two days and a half here and there about town.

The question asked by veteran Carmelites is, "What artist in this home of art will be the first to fracture a traffic law and be given opportunity to beautify the local scenery?"

Here is a break for the city newspapers. Headlines and photographs and at least a half column of reading matter that tells of galleries where the law-breaker's paintings hang, of medals won in Paris and London and New York, of commissions awaiting the poor fellow's release. Trees to be trimmed, signs to be painted, the park to be landscaped—all within the scope of toilers who had rather stay outdoors than go to jail.

Whether or not the new arrangement carries bed and board with it, as the bastile version does, is an open question, but suffice to say that if traffic violators rush to town just to enjoy the beauties of nature at expense of the city treasury instead of paying for a vacation at Santa Cruz or Russian River, they will find that practical jokes work both ways and that artistic little Carmel can plenty well take care of itself.

MAN HITS THREE CARS ON ROAD TO CARMEL

Driving his car in such manner that it is alleged to have collided with three cars on the road into Carmel before being stopped, D. F. Beckley, of Carmel on Tuesday afternoon came under investigation of state patrolman W. R. McGregor.

It is said by witnesses, although police investigation does not bear it out, that Beckley struck the first car near the Carmel Hill toll gate, then one near the state highway intersection with the Carmel road and finally hit R. W. Decastro, of Carmel, who was driving a new car near the Velie Clinic, and there he remained until the officer arrived.

Miss Helen McLachlan and Mary Loiuse Parsons were visitors in San Francisco over Tuesday of this week.
